

Teodora Lalova-Spinks

KU Leuven, Brussels

Teodora Lalova-Spinks is a doctoral researcher enrolled in an interdisciplinary PhD program at KU Leuven (Belgium). She conducts her research at the Centre for IT & IP Law (Faculty of Law) and at the Clinical Pharmacology and Pharmacotherapy research group (Faculty of Pharmaceutical Sciences). Teodora's PhD project focuses on the legal framework for clinical trials and data protection. She commenced her PhD in September 2018 as a fellow of the European Organisation for Research and Treatment of Cancer (EORTC). In November 2019, Teodora was awarded a PhD scholarship by the Research Foundation - Flanders (FWO).

In 2018, Teodora obtained an LL.M. in International and European Business Law (magna cum laude) from KU Leuven. She holds a Master of Laws degree (summa cum laude) from Sofia University, Bulgaria (2016). Her previous professional experience includes several internships in the private (law firms) and public sector (the Pardons Committee at the President of the Republic of Bulgaria, Sofia Regional Court).

